Sir:

Pursuant to MPEP 713.04, Applicant is submitting this summary of the substance of the December 10, 2004 telephone interview with Examiner Young.

U.S. App. Serial No. 09/412,087
Examiner Young
Art Unit 3622

REMARKS

On December 10, 2004 Carol Stovsky, Applicant's representative, participated in a telephone interview with Examiner Young to discuss the present application.

The participants discussed the priority date of May 29, 1996 which Applicant has claimed. In February 2002, Applicant submitted a substitute specification to claim priority of U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 08/654,529 filed on May 29, 1996, which is now U.S. Patent 6,014,638 issued on January 11, 2000.

The participants also discussed claim amendments which were submitted in Applicant's latest response that address the Jovicic reference cited by the Examiner. Applicant's representative explained that the amended claims which include limitations related to customization of data presentation as well as customization of content according to a user's navigational behavior are believed to patentably define the invention. The Examiner indicated that in view of the amended claims and clarification regarding the application priority date, further searching may be required.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: January 6, 2005
